BIOGRAPHY

Craig Smith is an Edinburgh DJ and producer whose musical roots span soul, boogie, jazz, funk, hip-hop and house. He made his DJ debut at The Hooch in 1987 and went on to a decade-long residency at The Honeycomb. Regular appearances at Southport Weekender and SunceBeat sit alongside an international club and radio career.

His studio work connects several distinct projects: 6th Borough Project with Graeme Clark (The Revenge), Soul Renegades with Ricky Reid, and Sound Signals. Alongside his solo records, Craig runs Beyond Tomorrow, a home for deep house, broken beat and soul-rooted electronic music.
